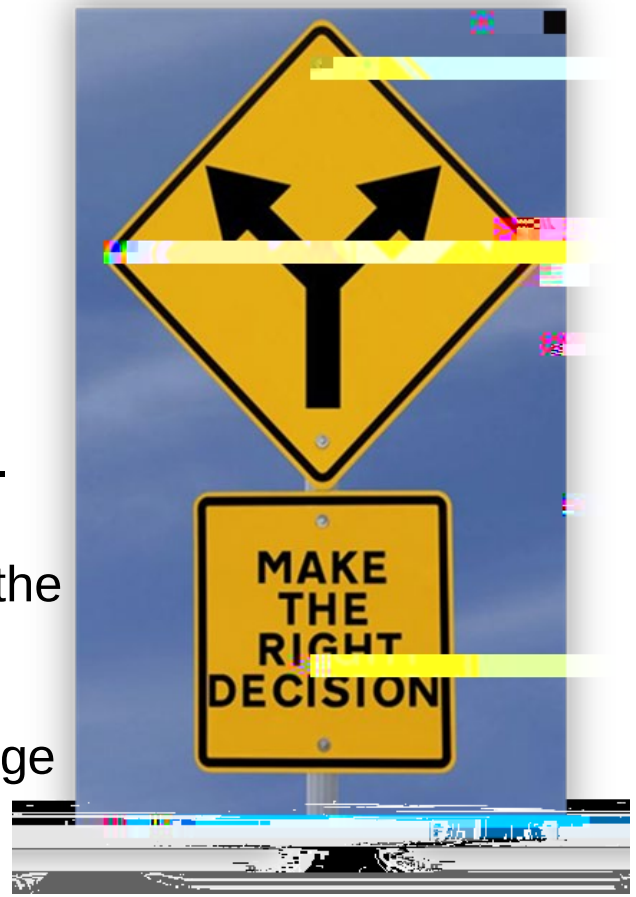
What Is Dual Credit?

Dual credit classes are Tarrant County College (TCC) classes for which students receive both

Why Take Dual Credit?

MAKING THE DECISION: DUAL CREDIT VS. ADVANCED PLACEMENT(AP)

- You want a college-level class experience.
- You re ready for rigorous content, but high-stakes tests aren t always your strong suit.
- You want to transfer the maximum possible credits to the university or college.
- You re ready to establish a college GPA and have a college transcript to prove it.



- You want the college-level class challenge and structure to develop college-level academic skills.

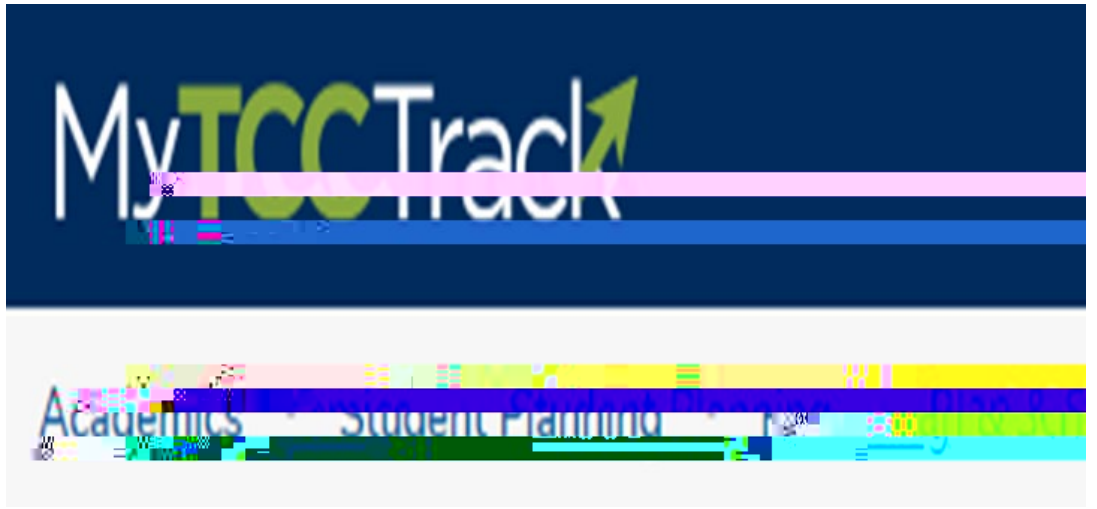
Register for Classes

Confirm with your high school counselor which specific course(s) you will be taking.

Attend a self-registration session at Birdville High School this spring.

You are not signed up for TCC dual credit courses until you receive your confirmation email at your TCC email account.



Pay for Your Classes

You must pay for your classes EACH semester. If you miss the payment deadline, you will be dropped from the course.

You can pay for classes online or in person at TCC's business services office.

TCC has payment plans available.

Dual Credit Grant

The Dual Credit Grant is available on a first-come-first-serve basis to students who qualify financially.

Complete the FAFSA and the one-page TCC Dual Credit Grant Application which can be found on TCC's website.

If interested, please notify your high school counselor

Student Accessibility Resources

All accommodations (IEP and 504) go through TCC's Student Accessibility Resources (SAR) office.

If you require ANY form of accommodation, please notify the SAR department as early as possible. The deadline to apply is 20 business days before the first day of your dual credit class.

College accommodations are not retroactive.

In college, it is the student's responsibility to make sure that they are receiving their accommodations.
